Scoring from the Collective Agreement	20-very good  15-good  10-satisfactory  5-limited  0-no evidence
WGS Assignment of Points	Feminist engagement affects scoring and is the most important element. For example, candidates having majority of elements, but no feminist engagement cannot score better than satisfactory.

e) Comments for the Dean’s consideration

i. Awarding of a course is subject to a Member’s success in meeting the duties and responsibilities in Article 16. In this section, the PTAC may submit comments or express concerns regarding the candidate. If the Member has failed to maintain a record of satisfactory teaching and/or has failed to satisfy all requirements under Article 16, it is expected that there will be evidence that progressive consultations with the Member have failed to address concerns.

ii. Has the PTAC identified an anomaly or trend in student course survey results that has caused concern? If yes, provide details, including evidence of consultations with the Member, if applicable.

Notes

Assessment of the candidate's competency to teach the posted course shall be based on the candidate's CV, application, and any other materials listed as optional in the job posting and information submitted by the candidate.

Similar courses (determined by PTAC) may be defined as experience in similar courses taught at Laurier or elsewhere, and may also include TA experience, Online teaching, and team-teaching.

A substantially similar courses(s) may include a course that appears in the Academic Calendar as a course exclusion or a course that encompasses substantially similar subject matter with the same or similar assessment techniques. Substantially similar courses are identified by the Department.

When two or more candidates with the highest point totals have equal points under Appendix H, the PTAC will inform the Dean that the assessment under Appendix H has resulted in a tie and will send the names of all candidates with equal points to the Dean.
